

Application for registration as a general postal voter for federal, Legislative Assembly and local government elections in the Northern Territory

Who can register as a general postal voter?

You are eligible to register as a general postal voter if you are already enrolled and can satisfy one of the options listed at item 7.

Persons unable to sign

If you are unable to sign your name or vote in the ordinary way, you can register as a general postal voter using this form.

General postal voting at federal elections

If you are registered as a general postal voter, you will be sent ballot papers as soon as practicable after the declaration of nominations for a federal election, or the issue of writs for a federal referendum.

General postal voting at Northern Territory Legislative Assembly and local government elections

If you are registered as a general postal voter, you will be sent ballot papers after the close of nominations whenever a Northern Territory Legislative Assembly or local government election is held.

Access to information

The Commonwealth register of general postal voters, listing the names and addresses of people registered, is available for public inspection in divisional offices during normal office hours.
